DEAF GALS ARTY PARTY

Highlight on artist:

Deaf-inately Women are very proud to present you with an Autumn/Winter 22/23 programme.

We are showcasing a range of exciting Arts workshops to learn more about how to:

- ▶ act
- ▶ draw
- ▶ create fabric prints
- ▶ make a Japanese knot bag
- ▶ make jewellery
- ▶ do an oil painting and much more!

We are grateful to the Arts Council who have kindly funded our arts-based activities enabling freelance artists who are deaf, deafblind or hard of hearing women to teach our peers.

ALL Workshops are FREE to deaf, deafblind and hard of hearing women

BSL interpreters and captions available

Samantha Jane, Artist Seeing Things Differently

"I love working alongside Deaf-inately Women because I feel we should all have equal opportunities to experience as much as we can.

Being partially deaf I understand first hand how it's easy to get lost in the crowd, when really we were born to stand out. I am Samantha Jane. A Tattoo Artist of 18 years. Originally from Derby, I moved to North East Wales to study for both my Bachelor and Master of Arts in Illustration at Glyndwr University. I'm a busy single mum of two boys and I love anything and everything arty, crafty and creative! I do commission artwork and logo design for business. I do lots of original design drawing for my job and I love nothing more than to share my energy for Art with others."
